

Our Final Prayer today will be the Our Father. While our opening Prayer was also the Our Father, we have included comments that were taken from an essay written by Pope Benedict XVI

Our Father who art in Heaven

Thankyou Jesus for revealing God to me as “Father” and allowing me to call Him Abba

Hallowed be Thy Name

May I keep God’s name Holy, and use His companionship to draw me up to His sanctity and not to draw HIM down to me

Thy Kingdom Come

Let the Dominion – the Supreme Authority of God Always rule my life

Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven

Let me KNOW and ACCEPT your Will, and Accept it as a standard of Judgment, for me today - and in Heaven

Give us this day our Daily Bread

Send your daily goodness into our lives

And Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us

Forgive ME and allow me to forgive evil done to me

Lead us not into temptation

Let me use temptation as a trial for purity, and don’t allow more evil into my life than I can handle

But deliver us from Evil

Deliver me – Rescue me – Redeem me

AMEN
